A powerful voice for fathers and families of children with special needs

2017 WA State Fathers Network Conference

Dads as an Anchor in a Sea of Change

Keynote – Lance Morehouse

Lance is the Executive Director of Sherwood Community Services. He worked at The Arc of Spokane developing Advocacy and Family Support programs, coordinated the King County Parent Coalition for developmental disabilities at The Arc of King County and served on the Fathers Network steering committee for 8 years. His passion for this work comes from his experience as the father of sons with significant disabilities.

Who should attend?

Men who have a child with special health care needs in their life.
