

A CALL FOR

PERSONAL STORIES & ARTWORK

Understanding and serving
individuals
with co-occurring
mental health issues and intellectual disabilities.

The Washington State Developmental Disabilities Administration (DDA) is facilitating the development of a Guidebook for mental health providers on understanding and serving individuals with co-occurring mental health issues and intellectual disabilities.

DDA would like to enhance the Guidebook and its intended message with meaningful artwork created by you, as well as personal stories of your experience with the mental health system and your mental health journey.

Please submit your personal stories, no more than one page and/or personal artwork to Katie Kimball: kimbacl@dshs.wa.gov

DEADLINE: March 15, 2016
