

GET CONNECTED

A phone and voicemail are crucial to your job search.

WorkSourceWA.com

WORK  Source

A partner of the americanjobcenter network

WorkSource is an equal opportunity employer and provider of employment and training services. Auxiliary aids and services are available upon request for persons with disabilities. Washington Relay Service: 711

WORK  Source

A partner of the americanjobcenter network

Don't miss out on potential jobs. Make sure employers can reach you.

GET A FREE PHONE

The federal Lifeline program provides free mobile phones and monthly service to people with limited incomes.

You qualify if you meet income requirements or receive any of these benefits:

- Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP)
- Medicaid
- Supplemental Security Income (SSI)
- Federal Public Housing Assistance (Section 8)
- Veterans Pension and Survivor's Benefit
- Certain tribal programs

How to enroll

Visit freegovernmentcellphones.net* and select STATES to choose a participating Lifeline provider. Fill out an application and provide proof of your identity and eligibility.

GET FREE VOICEMAIL

Sign up for free voicemail

You also can get a free voicemail account. Sign up at simplevoicebox.com* then use a computer or phone to listen to your messages. WorkSource provides computers you can use to sign up and check your voicemail from employers.

Apply for jobs using your new number

List your new number on applications and your WorkSourceWA.com resume.

Find more help

Call 211 to locate other resources in your community. A specialist will connect you immediately with the right resource. You also can learn about community resources online at win211.org.

Lifeline is a program of the Federal Communications Commission. Freegovernmentcellphones.net and simplevoicebox.com are privately operated and not affiliated with any government agency.*

