NAVIGATING YOUR WAY

The following resources are described in Navigating Your Way, Ages Twenty One to Forty is the fifth in a series of videos that provides a bird's eye view of services, supports and resources for every stage of life. Visit informingfamilies.org/21-40 to watch the video.

SERVICES

Developmental Disabilities Administration (DDA)

Provides case management and a wide range of supportive services for children and adults with Intellectual/Developmental Disabilities in Washington State. Learn more: dshs.wa.gov/dda.

Home and Community Services (HCS)

HCS provides a range of services for elders and adults with disabilities. Find your local HCS office at dshs.wa.gov/altsa/resources or through Community Living Connections at waccl.org.

FINANCIAL

Supplemental Security Income (SSI)

A cash benefit administered by the Social Security Administration for individuals with low income who are aged, blind or disabled: 1-800-772-1213; ssa.gov.

Supplemental Security Disability Income (SSDI)

A cash benefit for adult children with a disability whose parent is deceased or retired: 1-800-772-1213; ssa.gov.

ABLE Savings Accounts

A way for individuals with disabilities to save money without losing financial eligibility for government benefits such as SSI: washingtonstateable.com.

DD Endowment Trust Fund

A public-private partnership special needs trust that shelters and protects assets that would otherwise disqualify someone for government benefits, such as SSI and Medicaid: ddetf.wa.gov.

HEALTH CARE

Apple Health

Medicaid health care coverage for children and adults. Visit wahealthplanfinder.org to learn more.

HOUSING

Many people apply for a rental subsidy from their Local Housing Authority. Availability and wait times vary by location. Visit resources.hud.gov to find a HUD office near you.

For additional information, such as affordable housing locators and home ownership programs, visit informingfamilies.org/housing.

SUPPORT & ADVOCACY

Local Arc Chapters provide information, resource referral and advocacy. Visit arcwa.org/aboutus.

Parent Coalitions are parent-led groups throughout the state that help parents and guardians organize their voices and be heard on issues important to them at local, state and federal levels. To find a Parent Coalition near you, visit: arcwa.org/takeaction.

Parent to Parent (P2P) provides emotional support and information to families of children with special health care needs or other disabilities: arcwa.org/parent-to-parent.

People First of Washington

Self advocacy chapters throughout the state provide opportunities for individuals to connect with each other and learn valuable self-advocacy skills. For more information, visit peoplefirstofwashington.org.
