

Why Does Medicaid Matter?

Medicaid services are very important to me and pretty much everyone I know and my family because it's like people with I/DD survive off of them and they need those services because it helps and plus we also have providers, which that is their job. And it is that we want to support them as well as them supporting us with our Medicaid services.

Learn more about Why Medicaid Matters at informingfamilies.org/medicaid-information.

The Medicaid Matters: Share Your Story project is in collaboration with:

