

Why Does Medicaid Matter?

Medicaid provides disability services to my daughter who experiences a developmental disability. This includes additional health insurance that provides her with speech therapy and vital medical treatments. Additionally, Medicaid pay for a caregiver for a few hours a month to support her and my family with her personal care needs (that are much, much greater than the average 5 year old).

Learn more about Why Medicaid Matters at informingfamilies.org/medicaid-information.

The Medicaid Matters: Share Your Story project is in collaboration with:

