

Why Does Medicaid Matter?

“ It provides our family with the support we need to help our son with his medical, physical, and emotional well being. To alleviate some of the financial difficulties and extra needs parenting a special needs child can have, to then focus more on what is really important, our families happiness.

– Alicia, mother to Otto

Congressional District #1 and Legislative District #39

Learn more about Why Medicaid Matters at informingfamilies.org/medicaid-information.

The Medicaid Matters: Share Your Story project is in collaboration with:

