

Why Does Medicaid Matter?

Medicaid provides additional health insurance for my son so he can access therapies. Medicaid also provides personal care hours because my son has care needs that are more than the typical child his age. When he is an adult, Medicaid will help pay for job training and supports for him to be able to be a contributing member of our community.

Learn more about Why Medicaid Matters at informingfamilies.org/medicaid-information.

The Medicaid Matters: Share Your Story project is in collaboration with:

